

Gunpowder, treason and plot (Gunpowder Plot)

Teacher's notes

Length: 45 minutes

Meeting Point:

Please meet your session presenter outside the Salt Tower. Please arrive at least five minutes before your session is due to begin.

National Curriculum links:

- History: the lives of significant people.
- History: past events from the history of Britain.
- Citizenship: preparing to play an active role as citizens.
- English speaking and listening.

Session objectives:

Why did the Gunpowder Plot fail? Join one of King James' courtiers to explore the thrilling story of Guy Fawkes' plot to blow up the Houses of Parliament, and visit some of the spaces that house his fellow conspirators.

During this session, pupils will:

- Investigate the Tower's past use as a prison;
- Discuss the lives and characters of those involved in the 1605 plot;
- Develop their skills of empathy and communication through interacting with a presenter;
- Use their discoveries to draw comparisons between their own lives and lives of people in the past.

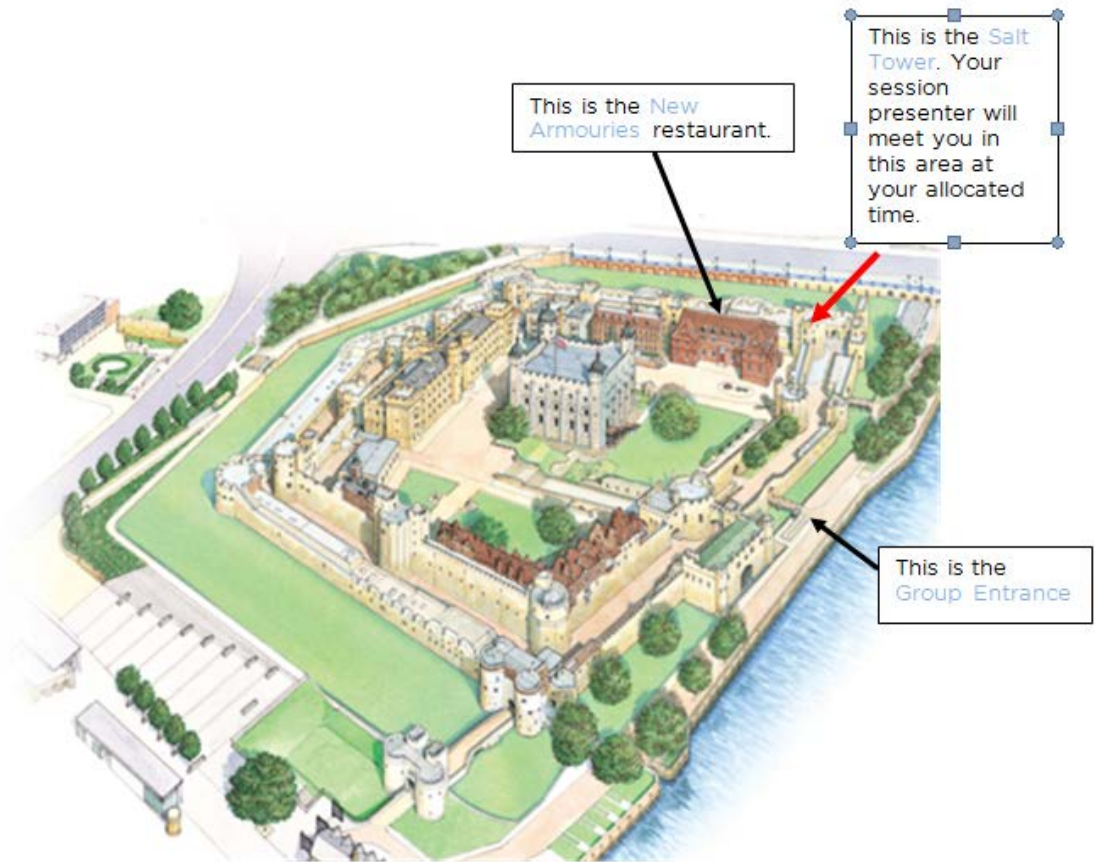

During your session:

Please note that the 1:5 staff to pupil ratio which we ask for throughout your visit to the Tower of London still applies during your teaching session. We ask that sufficient adults remain with the group as they will be encouraged to join in which the session activities. For health and safety reasons, our workshops are a maximum of 35 pupils.

For your information, parts of this session may include time outside so please encourage your pupils to dress appropriately.

Directions to the Salt Tower:

- The Salt Tower is located next to the New Armouries restaurant.
- On entry at the Group Entrance, turn right and follow the path around, the Salt Tower will be on your left.
- Please wait in the courtyard area outside the Salt Tower.
