The Last Days of Anne Boleyn

6 May - 28 August

Friday - Tuesday

11:00 and 14:00

Duration: approximately 35 mins

No performances scheduled 8 - 17 June

Step in to 1536 and experience the historic events leading up to Anne Boleyn's arrest, imprisonment, trial and execution. This outdoor theatre performance tells the story of the fall of this extraordinary woman who continues to fascinate us nearly 500 years later.

Meet at the South Lawn.

Performances are subject to weather conditions.

Boleyn Beat the Block

9 May - 23 August

Wednesdays and Thursdays

11:00 and 14:00

Duration: approximately 35 mins

8 - 17 June

Daily at 11:00 and 15:00

Join the Tudor Court as Anne Boleyn's friends and family try to escape the King's justice. Dare to make the dangerous decisions that mean the difference between life and execution. If you are not prepared to assist in the prosecutions, you too may face the block.

Meet at the South Lawn.

Performances are subject to weather conditions.

Water City Music at the Tower

11 - 17 June

12:00 - 15:00

A festival celebrating the talent of young, local people. We're transforming the atmosphere of the Tower with music inspired by its historic role as a Fortress, Palace and Prison.

Various locations around the Tower.
