

TEMPORARY MAGNIFICENCE: THE EPHEMERALITY OF EARLY MODERN COURTS

Saturday 27 October 2018

Hampton Court Palace

9:30

Registration

10:00

Introduction and Welcome

TRACY BORMAN (Historic Royal Palaces)

POLITICS OF EPHEMERALITY

10:15-10:45

MAURICE HOWARD (University of Sussex): Monarchs and Courtiers on the Move:
Ephemeral Building in Sixteenth-Century Europe

10:45-11:15

GLENN RICHARDSON (St Mary's University): Temporary Magnificence, Permanent
Peace? The Meaning of the Field of Cloth of Gold

11:15- 11:30

Questions and discussion

11:30-12:00

Coffee

PORTABLE PALACES

12:00-12:20

ALDEN GREGORY (Historic Royal Palaces): Portable Palaces: Timber Lodgings and Banqueting Houses in Tudor England

12:20-12:40

CHARLES FARRIS (Historic Royal Palaces): Portable Palaces: Reconstructing Tudor Royal Tents

12:40 -1:15

Questions and Visit to the Tent

1:15-2:15

Lunch

EPHEMERAL ARTS AT COURT

2:15- 2:45

MARIA HAYWARD (University of Southampton): Creating Court Interiors

2:45-3:15

TOM BETTERIDGE (Brunel University): Theatricality and the Construction of Court Space

3:15-3:30

Questions and discussion

3:30-4:00

Tea

EPHEMERALITY OF EARLY MODERN COURTS: SOME INTERNATIONAL CONTEXTS

4:00-4:30

SEIF EL RASHIDI (Institute of Historical Research): Ephemerality in an Egyptian Context

4:30-5:00

JAGJEET LALLY (University College London): Court, Camp, and Hunt: Ephemeral Structures in the Mughal and Qing worlds

5:00-5:15

Questions and discussion

5:15-6.15

Conference Reception