Armistice Day/Remembrance Sunday

Sunday 11 November 2018
11:00 Clock Court

At 11 o'clock on 11 November 1918, the fighting in the First World War ceased. At 11:00 on 11 November 2018 Hampton Court Palace will briefly cease operations to remember those linked to the palace who have died in various wars since 1914. Most – but not all – are commemorated on the two war memorials in the Chapel Royal so this is an opportunity to pay tribute to them.

All visitor routes will closed from 10:45 and staff and visitors wishing to watch should congregate in Clock Court ready for the 11:00 national two-minutes silence. This will be followed by a short wreath-laying ceremony. Visitor routes will reopen at 11:20.

The 11:00 'Queen in Danger' presentation will therefore be cancelled.

Choral Matins at 11:00 will begin in Clock Court with this commemoration and move to the Chapel Royal afterwards.
