

WELCOME TO KENSINGTON PALACE

We hope you enjoy your visit to this wonderful building, which has been a royal home since 1689.

The palace is divided into two halves – public rooms including the Queen’s and King’s State Apartments, which you can visit and uncover the public and private stories of the young royal families that have lived here, and a separate, private side where members of the Royal Family live today.

We are operating a one-way route taking you through Victoria: A Royal Childhood, The State Apartments and finishing in the Royal Style in the Making exhibition.

Don’t miss the beautiful Sunken Garden dedicated to Diana, Princess of Wales, who will be commemorated with a new statue from 1 July 2021.

VICTORIA A ROYAL CHILDHOOD

Queen Victoria, 1819–1837

Experience Queen Victoria’s childhood apartments and the vibrant rooms where she was born and grew up. Witness her extraordinary story of teenage survival, amidst family feuds and tragedy, right up to the day she became Queen.

History where it happened

7 The Baby in The Palace

Queen Victoria was born in this room on 24 May 1819. Her parents, the Duke and Duchess of Kent, travelled over from Germany at the last minute so that their daughter would be born in England. After her safe arrival, the Duchess of Kent declared that baby Victoria was ‘a pretty little Princess, plump as a partridge.’

KING'S STATE APARTMENTS

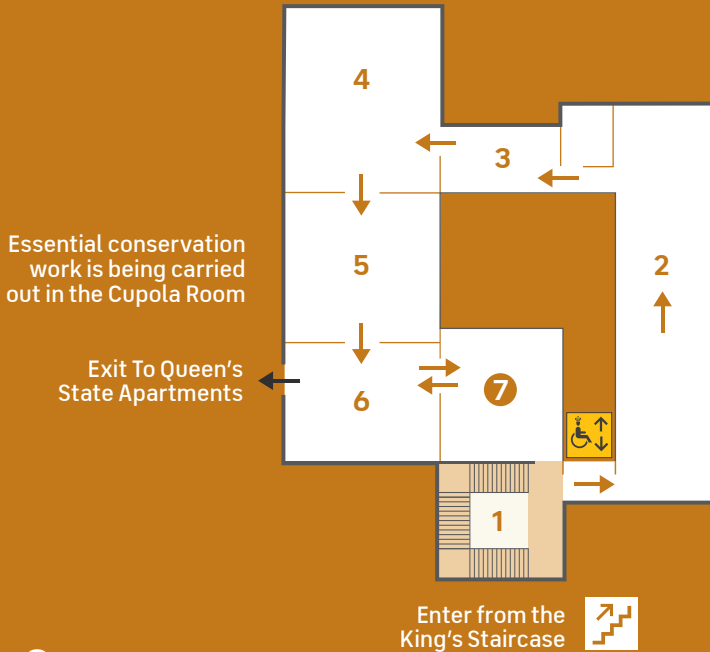

The Georgians, 1700s

Explore the glittering court of George II and Queen Caroline and discover the era of music, fashion and the arts brought to life in the splendid and sumptuously restored State Apartments.

History where it happened

7 The Presence chamber

In the Presence Chamber the King received important guests, seated on a throne. In 1734 a delegation of Yamacraw native Americans was introduced to George II here. They presented him with a traditional tribute of eagle feathers as an emblem of peace.

Essential conservation work is being carried out in the Cupola Room

QUEEN'S STATE APARTMENTS

The Stuarts, 1690s

Step inside the oldest part of the palace. These intimate rooms were created for Queen Mary II, who ruled with her husband, King William III.

History where it happened

2 The Queen's Bedroom

Queen Mary died in the room next to this on 28 December 1694. The much-loved queen had contracted smallpox a week earlier and had been putting her affairs in order. Her distraught husband slept in the room on a camp bed, against the advice of the doctors. She was only 32 years old when she died.
